Hon. John C. Black,

Commissioner of Pensions,

Sir,

With this report I respectfully return the case Orig No. 43613 in claim of ~~Samuel Hopeley~~ <sup>Samuel Hopeley</sup>, formerly a soldier in the War of 1812. Claimant's P.O. address is Bayou La Balle, Mobile Co. Ala. . Notice waived.

I could find no evidence of the death of Samuel Hopeley, and it is my belief that none is obtainable in this vicinity. I took the deposition of one old resident of Newburgh, N.Y., and interviewed several other men of character and standing who had resided there from forty to sixty years, and who corroborated the deponent in every material point. Among those interviewed were the editor of a Newburgh newspaper, the Librarian of the public library and an ex-officer of the Post Office familiar with river affairs whose father was a Steamboat agent at that place for many years. These gentlemen pronounce Claimant's statements relative to matters within their knowledge absurd. I examined very carefully the files of two newspapers published in 1852, 3 & 4, the records in the County Clerk's office of Coroner's inquisitions from 1851 to 1855; searched the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, the City Clerk's Office and the Grave yard, and I fail to find anything to corroborate Claimant's statement. If it is necessary to prove the death of the first husband, I recommend rejection.

D. C. Thomas,

Special Examiner.

A special Examination has been had, and thorough search and inquiry have elicited no information whatever concerning Hosley, or the fact of his death. The records of the Coroner's office, of the cemeteries, and of the City Clerk's office furnish no information in the matter and many statements of claimant <sup>concerning Newburgh</sup> are not borne out by the facts.

The death of Hosley is not proved, nor can it be. <sup>He lived with Goldman until his death Oct. 1873</sup> bury him there. I do not know who we got permission from. Francis Cheers, Mrs.

Mary Cheers his wife. Mr. Allick McNeely and Fannette McNeely his wife. I was at Hockley's funeral. I cannot remember any others.
Then some others there but I cannot remember their names. The Cheers and McNeelys lived at Newburg then and they all came to Mobile when I did. Mr. McNeely died in 1854 and his wife died in Mobile about two years ago at the widow's home. Cheers was killed during the war and his wife died in the same the summer in 1865. The nearest I can come to the date of Hockley's death is the fall of 1852 because I came to Mobile in the spring of 1853 and had the yellow fever in 1854 and Hockley had only been drowned a short time when I came to Mobile. I cannot recollect the names of any of the people I could refer you to. Hockley was about 37 1/2 inches tall sandy hair blue eyes slender build very fair complexion and was a bookkeeper by occupation and was a Quaker. I cannot think of the name of anyone he kept books for. It was in the night time that he was missed from boat. It was supposed he went to draw water and stepped too far and his ear found. I can thoroughly understand and comprehended the questions asked and my answers have been amply needed

Madam:

In reply to your communication of a recent date relative to your claim as noted above you are advised that the claim is awaiting evidence to show your cohabitation with the soldier as his wife, the fact and date of the death of his first wife and of your first husband.

As has been already explained to you, the witnesses to the death of the soldier's first wife sign their names by mark, and their signatures are not witnessed by persons who write their names and cannot therefore be accepted.

Your own testimony as to your marriage to the soldier and the death of former consorts cannot be accepted, but must be by witnesses who know of the events about which they testify, and if they sign their names by mark, their signature should be witnessed by persons who write their names.

Hon. John C. Black

Commissioner of Pensions,

Sir

I have the honor to return herewith the papers in relation to service pension No. 43613 of Elizabeth Goldman widow of Young Goldman, Vt. in the War of 1812. Her address is Bayou La Balle Mobile Co. Ala.

This case was referred to me with instructions to examine all records of Newburgh, N.Y., to ascertain if possible the fact and date of death of Samuel Hockley in 1854.

I made exhaustive but unsuccessful searches of all the avenues of probable information, viz: the office of City Clerk and Board of Health of Newburgh, Orange Co. N.Y.; and also the office of the County Clerk and Board of Supervisors at Goshen, Orange Co. N.Y.. I herewith submit Certificates of search of said City Clerk and County Clerk.

There is in the County Clerk's office a record of a coroner's inquisition on the body of an "Unknown Man found drowned in the Hudson river opposite the town of Newburgh in said county (Orange) on the 17th day of September 1855"; but Chas. E. in a letter dated Oct. 18th 1886, says, "I was there present at the time he was drowned"; and of course his name would be known. Said Hockley might have been accidentally drowned without an inquest being held, but it is not likely. This point in the case seems very cloudy.

Very respectfully,

On this 26th day of February, 1887, at Newburgh, County of Orange, State of New York, before me, J. C. Starnes, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Capt. George D. Wooley, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am Capt. of a vessel aged 38 years P. O. address as above. I was born in Newburgh, N. Y. My age, and in 1852, when I was about 18 years old, I followed the North of Hudson river since I was about fourteen years old and have been quite familiar with the river craft on the Hudson since that time. There was no mail boat running at that time, in fact, I do not recall, in 1852, the mail being carried by rail. There was no cotton factory below Newburgh at that time, nor since. I do not recollect any resident of Newburgh by the name of Highfield. The river was called in that name. The minister by the name of Hite was the only Methodist minister in Newburgh in 1852 and named Sing. A minister by the name of Hayes lived and preached in this place in 1856 & 7. In 1852, there were at least two graveyards in Newburgh and in the first, I was laid out in the earth as it was in 1852. I have heard several statements and from my knowledge of Newburgh affirm that the last forty-five years I am convinced that her statement is verifiable. I have no interest in the claim and do not recollect in this deposition.

DEPOSITION A

Case of Isabella Goldman, No. 43.613

On this 26 day of January, 1887, at Bayou La Batre, County of Mobile, State of Alabama, before me, E. A. Banning, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Isabella Goldman (Goldman), who, being by me first duly sworn to answer by all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: The name is Isabella Goldman, age 53 years, Occupation, Staying at Home, Residence & P.O. Address Bayou La Batre, Mobile Co., Alabama. I am the applicant in Pension as the widow of Young Goldman who was a soldier in the war of 1862. From seeing him last once was his papers I saw always in my mind he was a private in 1st Regt Miss. Infantry commanded by Genl Claiborne in Johnson's Company. I was married to him on the 20th day of July 1858 at Mobile, Alabama by a Methodist Minister named T. C. Webb. Young Goldman died at Moss Point, Miss. on the 25th day of October 1873. I was never remarried nor lived in continuous cohabitation since his death, and I never intend to. My first husband was named Samuel Hookley. I was married to Hookley in Bridgeport, Conn. in 1851. I think, Hookley and I were about the same age. He was a Scotchman. He was a clerk in a store and then he ran as a mail boat and at times from the mail boat he got drunk, he died his body three days after he was drowned. He lived in Bridgeport about two years after we were married and then moved to Newbury, Mass. He lived there about two months before he was drowned. I worked in a cotton factory at Newburg, I help them. I do not remember the names of the men there. When their crew I worked in the one closer the river. The other factory was up the river from the town. The boat that Hookley was on would run down to New York and up the river from Newburg. In the morning the boat would go down to my crew come back the next day and lay over that night at Newburg and then would go up the river the next day and come back on the day following and lay over that night and would then go to New York. The family of the Capt of the boat lived at Newburg and that is how it comes that the boat would lay over at Newburg. I have forgotten who Hookley worked for at Bridgeport. I cannot remember the names of any of the people there. The circumstances of Hookley's death are these. The boat was coming down the River and he was runned ten miles above Newburg and when the boat reached Newburg it was told to me by the Capt himself. He came to my boarding house and told me. The Capt then sent out the small boats and the body of Hookley was found along the shore, drifted up against a sand spit, about five miles above Newburg. The body was brought to Newburg in one of the small boats and placed on the bank to hold the funeral. They sent for me while they were holding the inquest and I went. Everybody knew where the body it was. It was known to be Hookley's. The body was then turned over to me and I had it buried. The body was buried in the corner yard at Newburg. There was only one year, and in Newburg then. The grave yard laid back of town, about a quarter of a mile back from the

I married the woman who lived at Newburg, Mo. He had lived in Newburg about two months when he was drowned. I was married to him in the latter part of April 1851 and in the fall of the following year, he was drowned. It is my recollection he was drowned in the year of 1852. I remember that I came to Mobile, Alabama, in the spring of 1853 and during the year I had the yellow fever. It was in the year 1854 that I had the yellow fever. I do not think it exactly a year married and a year and a half before he was drowned. Hookley kept the books in the bar room and kept charge of the bar on the boat. I never went down to see the boat. I do not remember the name of the boat. I cannot tell where it was. I have the boat run except that it ran on the north river. I do not know the names of any of the officers or employees of the boat. My brother-in-law ran the same boat. His name was Francis Green. He married my sister. Francis lived in Newburg. I do not know how long he had lived in Newburg because he was living there when we went there. Green was a boat hand on the boat in taking off and on freight. As soon as Hookley & I went to Newburg, Hookley went out the boat; that was the reason he went to Newburg. I attended the Methodist Church at Newburg, the preacher's name at Newburg was Hite. I did not belong to the Church but attended that Church. There was only one Methodist Church then there. I have a heap of the records of the Church but I have forgotten all of our names. The lady I boarded with in Newburg was named Mrs. Highfield. The slave was not laid out in streets there then.

I worked in a cotton factory at Newburg, Mo. I do not remember the name of the man.

Middletown, N.Y. Dec. 23rd 1886.

Hon. John L. Black,

Commissioner of Pensions,

Sir

I have the honor to return herewith the papers in claim for service pension No. 43613 of Isabella Goldman widow of Young Goldman, Pvt. in the War of 1812. Adm's Bt. address is Bayou La Bate Mobile Co. Ala.

This case was referred to me with instructions to examine all records of Newburgh, N.Y. to ascertain if possible the fact and date of death of Samuel Hockley in 1854.

I made exhaustive but unsuccessful searches of all the avenues of probable information, viz: the office of City Clerk and Board of Health of Newburgh, Orange Co. N.Y.; and also the office of the County Clerk and Board of Supervisors at Goshen, Orange Co. N.Y.. I herewith submit Certificates of search of said City Clerk and County Clerk.

There is in the County Clerk's office a record of a Coroner's inquisition on the body of an "Unknown man found drowned in the Hudson river opposite the town of Newburgh in said county (Orange) on the 17th day of September 1852"; but Chut. in a letter dated Oct. 18th 1886, says, "I was there present at the time he was drowned"; and of course his name would be known. Said Hockley might have been accidentally drowned without an inquest being held, but it is not likely. This point in the case seems very cloudy.

Very respectfully,

J. C. Thomas, Special Exam.

Sir:-

Will you have the kindness to have the records of your office examined, to ascertain if possible, the fact and date of death by drowning, in the North River, of one Samuel Hockley in the year 1854, in the month of Sept. It is alleged that his home at the time was at Newburg. N.Y., that he had been in this country only about four years.

This information is desired for use of his widow, who immediately after his death, removed to Mobile Ala. and subsequently married a soldier of the war of 1812. for whose services she is now prosecuting a claim for pension as his widow.

DEPOSITION

Chas of Newburgh, No. 116

On this 26th day of February, 1887, at Newburgh, County of Orange
State of New York, before me, J. C. Thompson, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Capt. George D. Woolsey, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am Capt. of a vessel aged 58 years

My life, and in 1832, when I was not all the residents in Newburgh. I followed the North of Hudson river since I was about fourteen years old and have been quite familiar with the river craft on the Hudson since that time. There was no mail boat running at that time, in fact, I do not remember, in 1832, the mail being carried by rail. There was no cotton factory located at Newburgh at that time, nor since.
I do not recollect any resident of Newburgh by the name of Highfield. There were no churches in this place named by the name of Hite. The only Methodist church in Newburgh in 1832 was named Sing. A Minister by the name of Hayes lived and preached in this place in 1836 & 7. In 1832, there were at least two graveyards in Newburgh, and the city proper was laid out in blocks, just as it was in 1832. I have heard Bunt's statement and from my knowledge of Newburgh affairs for the last forty-five years I am convinced that her statement is very improbable. I have no interest nor bias in this case.

I have provided for my children and the interest are correctly recorded in this deposition.

Case of Isabella Coleman, No. 43.613

On this 26th day of January, 1887, at Bayou La Batre, County of Mobile, State of Alabama, before me, E. A. Banning, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Isabella Coleman (Coleman), who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: My name is Isabella Coleman, age 53 years, occupation, Living at Home, Residence & P.O. Address Bayou La Batre Mobile Co, Alabama. I am the applicant in Pension as the widow of Young Coleman who was a soldier in the war of 1862. From hearing him talk and see his papers I have always understood he was a private in 1st Regt Miss. Infantry commanded by Genl Claiborne in Sherman's Campaign. I was married to him on the 4th day of July 1858 at Mobile, Alabama by a Methodist minister named T. C. Worin. Young Coleman died at Moss Point, Miss. on the 25th day of October 1873. I have never remarried nor lived in cohabitation since his death, and I never intend to. My first husband was named Samuel Hookley. I was married to Hookley in Bridgeport, Conn. in 1851. I think Hookley and I were about the same age. He was a Scotchman. He was a clerk in a store and then he ran on a mail boat and at last from the small boat he got drunk. He died his body three days after he was drowned. He lived in Bridgeport about two years after we were married and then moved to Newberg, N.Y. He lived there about two months before he was drowned. I worked in a collar factory at Newburg, while there. I do not remember the name of the man of the man I worked for. There were two factories there then and I worked in the one closer the river. The other factory was up the river from the town. The boat that Hookley was on would run down to New York and up the river from Newburg. In the morning the boat would go down to my and come back the next day and lay over that night at Newburg and then would go up the river the next day and come back on the day following and lay over that night and would then go to New York. The family of the Capt of the boat lived at Newburg and that is how it comes that the boat would lay over at Newburg. I have forgotten who Hookley worked for at Bridgeport. I cannot remember the names of any of the people there. The circumstances of Hookley's death are these. The boat was coming down the River and he was missed ten miles above Newburg and when the boat reached Newburg it was told to me by the Capt. himself. He came to my boarding house and told me. The Capt then sent out the small boats and the body of Hookley was found along the shore, drifted up against a sand spit, about five miles above Newburg. The body was brought to Newburg in one of the small boats and placed on the bank to hold the summer. They sent for me while they were holding the inquest and I was. Everybody knew whose body it was. It was known to be Hookley's. The body was then turned over to me and I had it buried. The body was buried in the court yard at Newburg. There was only one yard, and in Newburg then. The graveyard laid back of town, about a quarter or half a mile back from the Newburg, Mo. He had lived in Newburg, Mo. about ten months when he was drowned; I was married to him in the latter part of April 1851 and in the fall of the following year, he was drowned. It is my recollection he was drowned in the year of 1852. I remember that I came to Mobile, Alabama, in the spring of 1853 and during the year I had the yellow fever. It was in the year 1854 that I had the yellow fever. I do not think I took a wife until married over a year and a half before he was drowned. Hooley kept the books in the bar room and kept charge of the bar on the boat. I never went down to see the boat. I do not remember the name of the boat. I cannot tell where what the boat was run except that it ran on the north river. I do not know the names of any of the officers or employees of the boat. My brother-in-law ran on the same boat. His name was Francis C. C. C. He married my wife sister. Francis lived in Newburg. I do not know how long he had lived in Newburg because he was living there when we were there. C. C. C. was a boat hand on the boat in taking off and on freight. As soon as Hooley & I went to Newburg, Hooley went out (his boat) that was the reason he went to Newburg. I attended the Methodist Church at Newburg, the preacher's name at Newburg was H. H. I did not belong to the church but attended that church. There was only one Methodist Church there then. I heard a heap of the execution of the church but I have forgotten all of this execution now. The lady I boarded with in Newburg was named Mrs. Highfield. The place was not laid out in streets there then.

I worked in a cotton factory at Newburg, Mo. there. I do not remember the name of the man who was in charge of the factory.

Dear Jean:

We certainly enjoyed meeting you during our brief visit in May to your genealogy department. We were quite impressed with your expertise and the wonderful results of your hard work and dedication. When we return to your area we'll be sure to stop by and see you again.

Do you have an index of surnames being researched with the names and addresses of people who are working on those lines? I am looking for others researching BARNES, HOOD, GILL and GOLEMON and would like to exchange information on these families. I am enclosing some information for your GOLEMON and BARNES files and will forward updates to you as I gather more information. Again, thank you for all your help.

Dear Selden,

Thanks so much for the material on the Goleman's.

I am currently in the mist of gleaning my collection of genealogical research material in what my husband Bob calls "MY ROOM". I have taken over the middle bedroom of our home and have stored 11 years of material on his family and mine. At the present time there are stacks per surname in the living room and as I go thru the stacks, what is duplicated gets tossed.

Bob kids me a great deal about that side of the house falling off some day due to the weight of all the paper. Have been trying to get it in the computer, but days don't seem to be long enough.

Hope to have it all finished before we go to Virginia for a Goodman Reunion. Bob and I will be touring Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, and Arkansas digging for his ancestors.

We may even make it to North Carolina before he gets homesick and is ready to come home.

I don't know if Mobile will be on our loop. Certainly would be nice to meet some of my relatives.

I have been in touch with Mrs. Veal as well. I saw a query in the LDS Library many years ago per Young Goleman and Phoeby Gill. Did she tell you I had sent her a copy of their marriage in Amite County, MS. Also do you have a copy of the 1812 Pension file on Young. I have a copy that was given to me by a young lady here in Houston whose ancestor Gabriel Landrum married Martha Goleman, daughter of Young. I'll be glad to send a copy if you need it.

Do you know where Mrs. Veal found Young's name listed or documented as Madison. Haven't located anything on this yet.

Have done a little bit of research in Jefferson County and did find some deeds for Young. Will gather this up as well.

My ancestor Berry Slater and his father were also in Prairie County, AR. at the same time as Young. Berry married Sarah A. Goleman, daughter of Wilson and Susan Stringfellow Goleman. Trying to get Berry's Confederate service records from Arkansas at this time. Would like to get a headstone for his grave at Odd Fellows Cemetery at Bayou La Batre as he has just a very small stone with just his initials.

The Baptist church history was very informative. The Slaters listed are in my line. Trying to determine relationship between J. J. Slater and Berry. James J. Slater married Martha A. Goleman. They are buried in the same area as my Berry. As a matter of fact, so is the young William Goleman. Also looking for the relationship of a Susan Slater who married William Gorlott/Gollot, 25 Dec. 1886.

Have also found Levi Goleman age 42 in Quitman, Clarke County *MS. in 1860 who I believe are related to our Goleman families. With Levi was William Goleman age 69 born in SC. This William could be a brother to Young??

On 1880 Census Wilson and Susan Goleman were living in the same household with my great-grandfather (listed as Newton) Slater, Sarah, son Edward, daughters Minnie and Amelia. John Goleman and Alice Ann Goleman were also in the same listing.

Will end this much of the letter for now, but will sort the material I have in the file cabinet on the Goleman-Slater families. Also will go through your packet and add anything I have that you don't.

Give me time to sift through everything and I'll get back with you after we return from our trip.

Miss Brown is bride of Mr. Goldman

WADE — Tina Louise Brown and Robert Glenn "Bobby" Goldman were united in marriage Sept. 27 in an evening ceremony at Caswell Springs United Methodist Church of Wade, with the Rev. M.L. McCormick Jr. officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. (Patricia) Brown Jr. of Harleston, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. (Dora) Goldman of Big Point.

Music for the double ring, candlelight vows was offered by organist Ida Mae Cumbest and pianist Paula Goff, both of Wade, and vocalist Debbie Wildman of Helena. Guests were registered by Tracy Churchwell of Harleston.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore formal white satin, its fitted bodice fashioned with a mandarin collar, sheer yoke and sweetheart neckline, all lavishly embellished with Chantilly lace, seed pearls and iridescents.

Renaissance sleeves began in puffs of satin at the shoulders, and tapered to sleeves worked with motives of lace and pearls, ending in bridal points over the hands.

The full skirt fell in soft gathers from a natural waist to a scalloped hem, with appliques of the lace used lavishly. The train was designed with rows of Chantilly lace, and swept from the waistline to a cathedral length.

Her headpiece was a tiara of pearls and white silk flowers, which held in place fingertip veils of illusion, sprinkled with pearls.

She carried cascading miniature carnations, mauve and rose sweetheart rosebuds, white cymbidium orchids and pearls, tied with satin ribbons ending in love knots.

Lesley Cochran served her cousin as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Charrie McQueen of Wade and Janice Flurry of Lucedale, with Jennifer Brown, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid. Flower girl was Harriet Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goff.

Steve Bryan of Escatawpa was best man and groomsmen were Steve Marks and Doug Grant of Pascagoula, with Bengie Goff, cousin of the bride, as junior groomsmen. Ringbearer was Savie Goff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ebbie Goff and cousin of the bride.

Ushers, who also lighted candles, were Lee Goff, uncle of the bride, and Jerry Ladnier of Harleston.

A reception, directed by Gaynell Rudolph of Wade, followed at the church, where guests were registered by Ms. Churchwell. Ashley Goff and Nicole Goff, cousins of the bride, distributed bags of birdseed.

Tea girls were Gloria Goff and Luanne Goff of Harleston, Janice Goff of Pascagoula, Sandra Goff of Rainsville, Ala., and Mary Brown of Creole, Ala., all aunts of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Pensacola, Fla., the couple is at home in Helena. On the eve of the wedding, the parents of the bridegroom hosted a rehearsal dinner at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Goldman

Congressional Roundup . . .

Baker Probe Is Snarled

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate investigation of former Democratic aide Robert G. (Bobby) Baker was snarled today over how far it should go, and what it should investigate.

The dispute centers on whether the Senate Rules Committee should look into such related matters as the moral improprieties of employees as well as their financial transactions.

The controversy may be settled Thursday when the committee meets in closed-door session to work out procedures for the inquiry, including its scope.

The procedure session also will discuss the matter of public hearings on the Baker case. Baker, a former secretary to the Senate Democratic majority resigned after his widespread business activities came under criticism.

Other congressional news:

stead of the 70 per cent maximum set in the pending tax bill.

Eulogy: The Senate meets today to hold its special eulogy service for President Kennedy. The entire session was reserved for eulogies to the slain President. Kennedy served in the Senate for eight years before he was elected to the Presidency.

Alabama Votes On Amendments

MONTGOMERY (UPI)—Alabamians threw their support behind education and the state docks in Tuesday's statewide referendum.

The voters approved constitutional amendments to raise the corporate income tax from 3 to 5 per cent. The measure also automatically repeals a standby measure that would have prohibited industry from deducting federal taxes from state income tax returns.

The proposal will net classrooms an estimated $7.6 million annually.

Kreole Man Dies Of Injuries In Mobile Accident

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Warren Golmon, 28, Kreole, Miss., died today at a local hospital from injuries suffered in a traffic accident last Thursday.

—On Monday last Mr. George Goleman and Sam Snyder came to Seranton with a small boat load of oysters, which they sold that evening, and the next morning started for home under reefed sail the wind being very high. When they reached what is known as the ballast ground the boat was capsized. Capt. John Rapol who was discharging ballast some half mile off discovered that the boat was capsized, immediately ordered two men to man a boat and go to the rescue, but they were too late, Goleman was drowned, but still floating and was picked up. All efforts to bring him to were unavailing. Young Snyder is still missing. Both men lived near Orange Grove. An inquest was held on the body of Goleman Friday morning at Pascagoula by Judge O. P. Bowman and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts.

Feb. 12, 1886

DIED.

On the 4th of February last, Mr. GEO. GOLEMAN lost his life while en route from Seranton for his home on Bayou Combass, near Orange Grove, in this county. When on Point Auchoine Lake, in Mississippi Sound, he encountered a heavy gale blowing from the north and the boat was capsized. The weather being fearfully cold Mr. Goleman, with Mr. Samuel Snyder, the only occupants of the boat, were drowned. Mr. Goleman's body was soon picked up and buried three days later in the family graveyard, near Orange Grove.

He was about 24 years of age, born and reared at Orange Grove; was married about four years ago to Miss Josephine, daughter of Benjamin and Adelle Seaman. He was an affectionate husband, a kind father, a good citizen, a true friend, and leaves a wife and one child, a brother and many friends, who in sorrow and sadness, survive him.

Samuel Snyder was a youth about 18 years of age, son of Joe and Catharine Snyder. His body was found 15 days after death and buried at Orange Grove Church.
J. W. STARR.
Pecan Grove, Miss., March 5, 1886.

The body of Sam Snyder, who was drowned about two weeks ago with George Goleman, was found last Friday floating off Point Auchoine. It was brought ashore at Bang's Island, and Judge J. W. Starr, of Orange Grove, summoned a jury of inquest, who returned a verdict of accidental drowning. The body was of course, very much disfigured, but was identified principally by a missing toe.
